

Navigating a Resource

Here are three ways in which you can navigate a Logos resource.

Move Forward and Back

Use the “Forward” arrow to go to the next resource. Use the “Back” arrow to go to the previous resource.

As you navigate a resource, two arrows are enabled. For example, after moving around in the resource “Dios Habla Hoy”, two arrows change from a gray color to a black color. Note the arrows,  , on the right side in the following view:

The screenshot shows the Logos software interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with icons for Home, Bible, and Search, and tabs for Documents, Guides, and Tools. A search box labeled "Command" is on the right. Below the navigation bar, there is a tab for "Dios Habla Hoy" with a close button (x) and a plus sign (+). Below the tab, there is a search box containing "Matthew 27:4" and icons for a Bible, a list, and an information icon. To the right of the search box are navigation arrows (left and right) and an information icon. Below the search box, there is a breadcrumb trail: "» Dios Habla Hoy. > Nuevo Testamento > 26.1 XII. PASIÓN, ... > 27.1 Jesús es ...". To the right of the breadcrumb trail are icons for "Article", up and down arrows, and a close icon (x). The main content area displays the text of Matthew 27:4: "27 Cuando amaneció, todos los jefes de los sacerdotes y los ancianos de los judíos se pusieron de acuerdo[†] en un plan para matar a Jesús. ²Lo llevaron atado y se lo entregaron a Pilato, el gobernador romano. [†]". Below the text, there is a section titled "La muerte de Judas" with a sub-section "3 Judas, el que había traicionado a Jesús, al ver que lo habían condenado, tuvo remordimientos y devolvió las treinta monedas de plata a los jefes de los sacerdotes y a los ancianos, [†] ⁴diciéndoles:

When you click on the left arrow, you will go back to the previous view. When you click on the right arrow, you will return to the forward view.

Move to a Different Bible Reference

Note the box containing “Matthew 27:4”. This is the Reference Box. To navigate to a different bible reference, enter the reference into the box and hit the enter key. For example, enter “Luke 19:40” in the box and hit the enter key. This will move the resource to the location of Luke 19:40, as seen here.

Find Your Location in a Resource

In the picture above, notice the locator bar just below the Reference Box. If you do not see this bar when you have Logos Bible Software open, press CTRL+SHIFT+L. In other words, press the control key, the shift key and the letter “L” at the same time. (If you are using a Mac, press the command key, the shift key, and the letter “L” at the same time.) Each time you press this combination of keys, the locator bar toggles on and off.

Click on the button  on the left side of the locator bar. This opens the table of contents, as seen below.

With the table of contents open, you may select any place in the table, and the portion of the resource displayed in the main area will move to the location that you selected. For example, if you select the table of contents entry that starts with “20:20 La preg...”, the main content pane will move to the given location, shown below:

The screenshot shows a Bible software interface. At the top, there are navigation icons (home, book, search) and a search bar containing 'Command'. Below this is a tab labeled 'Dios Habla Hoy'. The main search bar contains 'Luke 20:19'. To the right of the search bar are icons for zooming and an information icon. Below the search bar is a breadcrumb trail: 'Dios ... > Nuevo Testamento > 19.28 ... > 20.20 La ...'. To the left of the main text area is a table of contents with entries like '19.28 V. EN JER...', '19.28 1. Activi...', '19.28 Jesús e...', '19.45 Jesús p...', '20.1 La autori...', '20.9 La paráb...', '20.20 La preg...', and '20.27 La preg...'. The main text area displays the article 'La pregunta sobre los impuestos' with a blue underlined link '(Mt 22.15-22; Mc 12.13-17)'. Below the link is a snippet of text: '20 Mandaron a unos espías que, aparentando ser hombres honrados, hicieran decir a Jesús algo que les diera pretexto para ponerlo bajo el poder y la jurisdicción del gobernador romano. 21 Estos le preguntaron:'.

To the right of the table of contents, you now see the  button. When you click on this button, the table of contents closes.

Notice that some of the text is blue, rather than black, and is underlined. One example is "Mt 22.15-22". Text in this format is a clickable link. When you move the cursor over the blue underlined text, it will change from an arrow to a hand with a pointing finger. At this point, click the mouse button and the book will move to the new location.

Move to a Different Article

At the right side of the locator bar you see . With this, you can navigate by article. The up arrow moves the resource to the previous article. The down arrow moves the resource to the next article.

The screenshot shows a dropdown menu for the 'Article' navigation button. The menu is open, showing the following options: 'Article' (highlighted), 'Book', 'Chapter', and 'Verse'.

If the resource is a bible or commentary, you can also navigate in ways other than by article. When you click on the triangle to the right of “Article”, you will see other options. You can navigate by Book (of the Bible), Chapter, or Verse. Choose one of the options. Then use the up and down arrows to move to a new location.

Cross References

If the resource is a bible or commentary, you will notice the special character, †, in certain places. When you move the cursor over this character, a small box will open up. This box contains another bible passage that is related to the passage you are currently looking at. Click on the link inside this box to move to the other passage.

Footnotes

Sometimes extra information is given at particular places in a resource in the form of a footnote. For example, in the resource, “My Tongue Is the Pen How Audiocassettes Can Serve the Nonreading World”, in article “1.3.1 The need for motivation”, there is a footnote at the end of a paragraph, as shown below:

Among the Rendille in Kenya, mini-courses on cassette taught illiterate elders how to write numbers and how to read simple business contracts. They need these practical skills to avoid being exploited by local merchants. A few of these functionally literate elders wanted to develop more reading and writing skills.²

Some people actually teach themselves to read by listening to a cassette and by following along on the printed page. Several

The small number “2” following “skills” is a footnote. Move the cursor over the number “2”, and you will see this note: “Noela Elvery delivered a paper on this audio project at the Africa Area Literacy Consultants Training Seminar, Yaoundé, Cameroon, January 1988. Excerpts of her paper appear in Notes on Literacy 61(1990):45-48.”
